WELCOME ALL

BARBERTON???

AT LAST, A NEWSLETTER FOR FANS OF T.V. PROGRAMS THAT GO (AND HAVE GONE) BUMP IN THE NIGHT!

THIS PUBLICATION WILL CENTER LARGELY ON THE GUY WHO STARTED IT ALL... AT LEAST IN THE NORTHERN OHIO AREA - GHOULARDI!

A SPECIAL THANKS TO BIG CHUCK & LIL' JOHN FOR ALL THEIR ENCOURAGEMENT AND ANSWERS TO EVENING QUESTIONS OF THE GHOULARDI REPERCUSSION.

BIG CHUCK & LIL' JOHN SHOW

YOU SHOULD KNOW THAT BIG CHUCK & LIL' JOHN ARE DESCENDANTS OF GHOULARDI. THAT'S OLD NEWS. THE NEW NEWS (?) IS THEIR NEW SHOW ENTITLED, "ALMOST PRIME TIME." THE FIRST SHOW AIREED ON 1-27-91 AT 7:00 P.M. AND WAS PACKED WITH OLD AND NEW STUFF THAT SHOULD DELIGHT THOSE WHO CAN'T STAY UP TO CATCH THEIR LATE SHOW AT 1:30 P.M. GOOD LUCK GUYS!

THERE'S A KNOCK ON THE PHONE!

OVER THE PAST DECADE, A FAMILIAR VOICE HAS RIPPED UP ON TALK SHOWS AROUND THE CLEVELAND AREA. TO SOME, HE IS ERNIE ANDERSON BUT MOST OF US ON THE NORTHEAST REMEMBER HIM AS "GHOULARDI".

TO THE WELL-TRAINED CLEVELAND COUCH POTATOE-FAP, ERNIE'S VOICE CAN BE HEARD ALL OVER THE PLACE (NEWS VOICE-OVERS AND "THE LOVE BOAT" ANNOUNCER JUST TO NAME TWO TYPES). HOWEVER, RADIO TALK SHOWS HAVE INTERVIEWED ERNIE WITH MUCH REMINISCING AND RARE GLIMPSES INTO THE PAST OF A GUY WHO MADE IT BIG. ALTHOUGH GHOULARDI FANS SAW THE LAST OF THEIR KING LIVE IN '66, IT IS QUITE A TREAT TO HEAR ERNIE TALK ABOUT HIS GHOULARDI YEARS IN CLEVELAND.

HERE'S A START ON A LIST OF ERNIE INTERVIEWS:

DATE	STATION	HOST
10-31-87	3WE (AM)	MORRIS
4-14-89	WNIR (FM)	TOMMY
1-9-90	3WE (AM)	BOB

HAVE MORE? LET US KNOW!

NO, NOT PARMA... NOT EVEN CLEVELAND - BUT BARBERTON. WHY? WHAT DOES BARBERTON HAVE TO OFFER FOR GHUL TYPE FANS? HERE'S ONE REASON:

YES, YOURS TRULY (IGNATZ) WENT AS GHOULARDI FOR HALLOWEEN IN '64 AND '65 MORE ON THAT LATER. NEED ANOTHER REASON? GHOULARDI CAME DOWN HERE AT LEAST ONCE (HEAR 3WE 10-31-87 INTERVIEW) HE REMEMBERED B'TOWN IN THAT PHONE CALL "MOI" MADE TO MORRIS ZUREL.

BUT WAIT... THERE'S MORE. THE ABOVE SWEATSHIRT CAME FROM FADDER'S MENSWEAR IN PARBER-TON. THE STORE IS GONE BUT THE PICTURES LINGER. YOUR TURN. I'M WAITING FOR YOU. SEND YER MEMORIES TO IGNATZ, P.O. BOX 505 BARBERTON, OH 44203

KAPITN IGNATZ (L) WITH SIS CIRCA '64 IN BARBERTON, OH. NOTE ULTRA RARE GHOULARDI SWEATSHIRT PURCHASED AT FADDER'S MENSWEAR IN SNAKE TOWN. ALSO HEAVILY VISIBLE IS CIGARETTE MARKER (EVENLY GHOULARDI PROP HALLOWEEN TIME)

GO FOR IT!

KNIFE NEWS

...AND DON'T FORGET TO PRONOUNCE THE K's

(KN) IF YOU'VE NEVER BEEN TO THE RECORD ROUND UP CONVENTION HELD IN

(WHERE ELSE) PARMA, THEN YOU'VE BEEN MISSIN' IT!

THE WRITER HAS BEEN LUCKY ENOUGH TO GO & RUB ELBOWS (INSET BODY PARTS JOKE HERE) WITH CLEVELAND LEGENDS!!! RARE MEMORABILIA ALWAYS SEEMS POUNTIFUL.

SHOWN ABOVE (L TOR) ARE STEVE PETRZYN AND PEANUTS. STEVE DOES AN EXCELLENT JOB PUTTING IN THESE SHOWS. PEANUTS IS ONE OF THOSE LEGENDS IN HIS OWN MIND WHO OFFERS RARE ITEMS OTHER THAN RECORDS. I FOUND A "GHOUL" SCENE ISSUE IN HIS PILE OF GOODIES. FOR... PEANUTS (SORRY).

ON DISPLAY AT LAST YEAR'S SHOW WAS A POSTER FROM THE FIRST ROCK CONCERT (HELD IN CLEVELAND BY ALAN FREE). ON ANOTHER OCCASION, I WAS POKING AROUND OR A "GHOUL" SONG

AND A COSMIC CHARACTER WHO OVERHEARD MY WANT LIST FOR GHOULARDI SONGS USHERED ME TO A DEALER WHO HAD ONE OF THEM.

EVENTUALLY, I BOUGHT THE 45, BUT I MISSED THANKING THE USHER WHO TURNED OUT TO BE OLD WHERD HAROLD FROM THE GHOUL SHOW! THANKS HAROLD... IF YER OUT THERE?!

"THE GHOUL" MAY HAVE THE BEST COLLECTION OF GHOULARDI STUFF... BUT THE TWO GUYS SHOWN BELOW COULD START A MUSEUM OF THEIR OWN. DAVE M. (L) AND TIM OF T.I.T. PRODUCTIONS

(R)-RECORD SHOW GUYS GET THE IGNATZ AWARD* FOR THE KNOWLEDGE AND COLLECTIBLES THEY'VE AMASSED OVER THE YEARS (BOTH T.I.T. SHOW REVIEWS WILL BE IN NEXT ISSUE)

PIEROGI SHOP?

RUMOR HAS IT THAT BIG CHUCK & LIL' JOHN ARE PLANNING TO OPEN A PIEROGI SHOP SOMEWHERE IN OR NEAR THE CLEVELAND AREA.

AN AD WAS SEEN ON THEIR 7:00 P.M. SATURDAY SHOW. IF IT'S IN THE WORKS, GOOD LUCK GUYS

I'VE ONLY GOT WIND OF ONE OTHER SO CALLED PIEROGI SHOP AND BOY! IS IT IN A BAD LOCATION. THE PLACE IS CALLED CLARA'S PIEROGI SHOP AND IT'S NEAR (GAG) PITTSBURGH OFF OF RT 50. IT SUPPOSEDLY HAS THE WORLD'S ONLY DRIVE-UP PIEROGI WINDOW.

OH YA?

GO GET 'EM BIG C. & LIL' J. HEY... MAYBE WE'LL EVEN HAVE A GHOULX PARDI AT YER PLACE! - END

THE FIRST SHOW

IT'S TIME HERE TO PICK THE IGNATZ 'BRAINS' & COME UP WITH SOME FAST MEMORIES OF THAT FIRST SHOW. BUT BEFORE THAT, LET'S BRIEFLY DISCUSS HOW "GHOULARDI" GOT HIS NAME.

THERE WAS A CONTEST IN WHICH WE (THE VIEWERS) WERE TO INVENT A NAME FOR THE CHANNEL 8 (CBS) CLEVELAND HORROR MOVIE HOST. THE WINNER ACTUALLY SENT IN THE NAME (WITH SORT OF A MAGIC TRICK) "GHOULARDO" AND ERNIE ANDERSON CHANGED IT TO "GHOULARDI" BECAUSE HE THOUGHT IT SOUNDED BETTER (WOULDN'T WE LIKE TO KNOW WHO THAT GUY WAS WHO WON - OR WHAT HE WON)? ANYONE KNOW? I'D LIKE TO SHAKE HIS HAND... EITHER ONE!

THE FIRST SHOW Aired IN THE FALL OF '63. ONE OF YOU OUGHT TO BE ABLE TO COME UP WITH THE EXACT DATE. RIGHT NOW, I'M ROLLIN' AND I AINT STOPPIN'; LET'S SAY IT'S FALL '63 FOR NOW - ON A FRIDAY NIGHT.

HERE IN THE IGNATZ HOUSE, THE LIGHTS WERE TURNED OFF AND AN EERIE (LAKE?) EFFECT RESULTED AS THE HEAD OF ERNIE (LAKE?)

ANDERSON MAGICALLY APPEARED WITHIN AN AMOEBA LIKE FRAME MADE POSSIBLE BY NEWLY DEVELOPED T.V. TECHNOLOGY. THE "FRAME" WAS EVER-CHANGING; SOMEWHAT LIKE THE LINE ON AN OSCILLOSCOPE, ONLY CIRCULAR... AND A DEVIL LIKE FACE ON THE INSIDE.

LIT WITH A LIGHT PLACED ON THE FLOOR (SAID TO BE A RON SWEED* INVENTION).

THOSE WERE JUST A FEW OF THE MANY VISUAL EFFECTS TO COME. THE AUDIO EFFECTS WERE OUT OF THIS WORLD!

GHOULARDI HAD ADOPTED A SLIGHT BELA LUGOSI ACCENT. HIS VOICE WAS FURTHER ENHANCED BY A CAVE INTERIOR-LIKE ECHO. THE ECHO WAS MANIPULATED SO THAT WHEN GHOULARDI CAME TO THE END OF - SAY - A PUNCHLINE OF A JOKE, THE KEY OR END WORD WAS REPEATED OVER AND OVER, THEN SLOWLY FADED OUT.

AS THIS REPORTER

REMEMBERS, HE SHARED THE LIVING ROOM RUG WITH HIS OLDER BROTHER AND YOUNGER SIS (SEE Pg 1). WE TURNED OFF THE LIGHTS AND A BLUE PULSATING GLOW FILLED THE ROOM. IT GOT TO BE TOO MUCH FOR SIS AND BIG BROTHER SAVED US ALL BY TURNING A LIGHT BACK ON. THAT AMOEBA O-ZONE WAS REAL EFFECTIVE!

THE FIRST MOVIE SHOW: HOOSE ON HAUNTED HOUSES WE REMEMBER

THE BAT TO THIS DAY MY BROTHER ENJOYS BRINGING ME DOWN WITH GHOULARDI'S REAL PROMISE AT SHOWS EN TO SHOW ALL WHO WERE LEFT... A REAL... LIVE... DEAD... BAT (BAT BAT, BAT, BAT, BAT...).

THE MOVIE WASN'T TOO BAD - AT LEAST NOT FOR THIS 11 YEAR OLD NEW INITIATED GHOULARDI FAN.

WHAT REALLY GOT ME WAS THE "REAL, LIVE DEAD BAT" THAT KEPT MY BROTHER AND I ON THE EDGE OF OUR... FLOOR (?) TURNED OUT TO BE A BROKEN BAS BALL BAT! AS THIS MOVIE WAS LATER RE-RUN, I GOT TO FEAST OUR HUNGRY EYES ON A REAL, LIVE, SMALL RUBBER NOVELTY BAT! THE BEST WAS YET TO COME.

*RON SWEED LATER BECAME "THE GHOUL" AFTER GHOULARDI LEFT

A black and white illustration of a large tree with a person standing next to it. The text "DIGGIN' OUR" is written on the tree trunk. The person is standing to the left of the tree, looking towards it. The tree has a thick trunk and many branches. The text "DIGGIN' OUR" is written in a stylized, hand-drawn font on the right side of the tree trunk. The person is standing on the ground, looking up at the tree. The background is simple, with some lines suggesting a landscape.

TMT: Do you ever have trouble making a show roll?

ZACH: Not really. I made a mistake in my life—I should have learned how to be a stand-by guy who could remember jokes. I really can't remember jokes and when I have to introduce a group or whenever I try to think of something to say that'll get people in a good mood, I'm really very bad at remembering things. It's a terrible thing. I should learn how to do that by now—say something funny, crass, or

Some people get the impression I'm crazy - when really I'm just sleep-deprived or exhausted. Can you walk the streets - hit - I have to get a body or something - unless I get the car - and the

FROM THE GROOVE YARD

IT'S TIME TO PUT TO REST SOME OF THOSE HORROR HOST MUSIC QUESTIONS THAT HAVE BEEN TORTURING YOU FOR THE PAST COUPLE OF DECADES. LET'S GET RIGHT TO IT!

WHAT WAS THE GHOULARDI THEME MUSIC?

THE INSTRUMENTAL THAT STARTED OUT WITH THE CELLO WAS NONE OTHER THAN DUANE EDDY'S -

"DESERT RAT". THIS WRITER HAS ONLY BEEN ABLE TO FIND THE 45 VERSION (WHICH GHOULARDI PLAYED). IF ANYONE KNOWS OF AN LP VERSION OR 45 PICTURE SLEEVE, I'D LIKE TO SEE IT! THAT'S ACTUALLY THE B-SIDE. THE A-SIDE IS CALLED "BOSS GUITAR". A COUPLE OF YEARS AGO A WIERD COINCIDENCE HAPPENED TO ME. I WAS TRACKING DOWN JOHN ZACHERLEY INFO AND CAME UPON THE PUBLISHER OF ZACHERLEY AT LARGE -

LOU ANTONIGELLO (TWO CELLOS?) AS IT TURNED OUT, HE WAS ALSO THE PAST PRESIDENT OF THE DUANE EDDY FANCLUB! I ASKED HIM ABOUT THAT "DESERT RAT" SONG, BUT HE HAD VERY LITTLE INFO ON IT.

SO, HERE'S THE FIRST INSTALLMENT OF WHAT I

HOPE TO BE AN ONGOING TRADITION IN GHOULXPARDI: THE THEME SONG FOR ~g

OTHER THAN ED SULLIVAN, I CAN'T THINK OF ANOTHER T.V. SHOW THAT FEATURED MORE OF A VARIETY OF MUSIC THAN GHOULARDI. FROM POLKA TO BLUES TO ROCK, WE GHOULARDI FANS GOT QUITE AN EDUCATION.

FUTURE ISSUES OF GHOULXPARDI WILL FEATURE THOSE GHOUL-ARTISTS & THEIR

WE'LL KEEP YOU ON FILE. OTHERWISE, YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT YOU MUST SEND A S.A.S.E. WITHIN SEASON TO RECEIVE THE CURRENT ISSUE FREE.

AND A BUCK AINT THAT MUCH SO DONT SWEAT IT - IT'S WORTH IT.

COMMERCIAL TIME!

REMEMBER THOSE COSMIC COMMERCIALS FOR GHOULARDI SWEATSHIRTS? ERNIE A. DID THEM HIMSELF!

CAN ANYONE TELL ME WHAT A GHOULARDI SWEATSHIRT WENT FOR? IN THE MID 60'S, I'D GUESS ABOUT $4 (WITHOUT POSTAGE).

GHOULARDI USE TO PUSH THE MANNERS STUFF LIVE (AS I RECALL) BUT I DO REMEMBER SEEING A TAPED COMMERCIAL THAT WENT SOMETHING LIKE THIS:

"A LOT OF PEOPLE HAVE BEEN ASKING ME - WHERE IN THE WORLD (GHOULARDI HOLDS UP DEFLATED GLOBE BOX BALL) CAN I GET A GHOULARDI SWEATSHIRT.

...YOU CAN GET THEM HERE" - (AND THE ADDRESS / PRICE WOULD FLASH ON THE SCREEN.

THE OFFICIAL SWEATSHIRTS WERE BLACK WITH WHITE LOGO AND LETTERING [I WISH I HAD A PICTURE]

GHOULARDI GLOSSARY

HERE'S A START ON SOME OF THE LOST "WORDOLA" THAT USE TO DRIP FROM THE LIPS OF GHOULARDI. A SHORT DAFFYNITION WILL FOLLOW EACH WORD (UUA):

KNIF - FINK BACKWORDS WAS THE FULL EXPRESSION

COOL-IT - QUIT IT OR STOP IT. GHOULARDI SAID, "COOL IT YOU PURPLE KNIF."

STAY SICK - OPPOSITE OF "GET WELL"

TURN BLUE - ANOTHER LIGHT HEARTED SLAM, GHOULARDI WOULD ASK HIS AUDIENCE TO "STAY SICK AND TURN BLUE YOU PURPLE KNIFS."

GROUP - GHOULARDI'S FAN: "AW, YEA A GOOD GROUP" HE USED TO TELL US. IT EVOLVED FROM THE STATION OWNERS (GROUP W), ALL WERE FAIR GAME ON GHOULARDI'S SHOW.

IN THE NEXT ISSUE, WE'LL INVESTIGATE THE PROPS & CHARACTERS ON GHOULARDI'S SHOW. RIGHT NOW, I COULD USE THAT COOL-IT BOX !!! END

PICTURED ABOVE IS TIM OF T.L.T. PRODUCTIONS AT THE FEB 3RD RECORD SHOW. HE HOLDS THE FIRST (AND QUITE POSSIBLY ONLY) GHOUL*PARDI POSTER WHICH IS NOW IN THE POSSESSION OF THE GREATEST RECORD CONVENTION SWAMI OF THEM ALL. SHOULD YOU WANT TO SEE IT IN PERSON (WOW) IT MIGHT TURN UP AT THE...PARMA? RECORD ROUND-UP THIS FALL (AND I HEARD IT WAS WORTH AT LEAST $15).

I'D LIKE TO TAKE A TIME-OUT HERE AND TALK ABOUT THE QUALITY OF GHOUL*PARDI. AS YOU CAN SEE, WE'RE LACKING A BIT IN PICTURE CLARITY... THIS COMES ALONG WITH THE WORD "FREE". HOPE YOU CAN STOMACH THE "PLANET-9" XEROX PRODUCTION FOR A WHILE. BUT REALLY, IT'S KINDA LIKE ALL THOSE BAD MOVIES WE WATCHED ON GHOULARDI & THE GHOUL SHOWS... WAIT! CUT!!

EN ROUTE TO AKRON FROM CLEVELAND, THE KAPTIN PULLED IN AN F.M. COLLEGE STATION THAT WAS ADVERTISING THE NEW SALEM WITCH HUNTERS. I GOTTA ADMIT I HAD A GOOD LAFF WHEN I HEARD THAT NAME. THE SMILE BURNED INTO AN OPEN MOUTH WHEN THE D.J. ANNOUNCED THE FREE TICKET GIVE-AWAY TO THEIR SHOW FEATURING AN APPEARANCE WITH... THE GHOUL.

I SLAMMED ON THE BRAKES AT THE NEAREST PHONE BOOTH AND DIALED AWAY WITH NO LUCK. LATER, THE SAME D.J. SAID YOU COULD SAVE $1 OFF ADMISSION IF YOU BROUGHT IN A MODEL CAR.

INTO THE BASEMENT

BACK AT THE HOUSE, I HIT THE BASEMENT TRASH. OUT OF LITER BOTTLES & ALBING (CHEESE CORN (STYROFOAM PACKING)) I FORMED A "SCUDPUCKER" MODEL WHICH WAS MADE JUST TO BLOW-UP!

ANOTHER MORE CONVENTIONAL MODEL WAS MADE FROM ANCIENT REMNANTS OF 60'S PLASTIC CAR PARTS. A HOT GLUE GUN WAS USED TO ASSEMBLE BOTH CARS. THE CHALLENGE MODEL #2 - AS

IT BEGAN TO TAKE SHAPE, NOTHING CAME TO MIND UNTIL A "HOT WHEELS" CHOPPED CYCLE WITH A FAT GERMAN SOLDIER ABOARD WAS GOOED IN PLACE. SAY... THAT LOOKS LIKE NEIL ZURKER FROM T.V. 8... IT'S NEIL ON WHEELS!

FOR THE JOURNEY UP, RATTI (FRIEND-O-KAP) WAS DESIGNATED CO-CAPTAIN AND ASSIGNED TO PRESENT THE SCUDPUCKER TO THE GHOUL.

THE SHOW

THE ROMULANS WERE ON STAGE AS THE RATTI DUO ENTERED. THE #1 OFF DEAL WAS PROMPTLY ABSORBED INTO BEER.

IN THIS SIXTHS ATMOSPHERE WAS A GUY I RECOGNIZED FROM CLEVELAND RECORD SHOWS — IT TURNED OUT THAT "TOM" WAS IN THE SALEM WITCH HUNTERS

I TRIED TO RETAIN ALL THE GHOUL LINGO THRUST UPON US AS HE PRODUCED THE NEW McLEAN "BURGER" FROM McD's... THE GHOUL LIKES HIS WITH CHEESE WHIZ AND GLOPPED A GIANT JAR-LOAD ON THE DOOMED SANDWICH. HE THEN JABBED AN M-80 INTO THE ORANGE MOUND AND BAM... THE FRONT LINES WORE IT HOME.

OUR EARS WERE STILL RINGING FROM THE McLEAN BLAST WHEN THE GHOUL PULLED KAPTIN KO-PILOT RATTI FROM THE Mc-DITTED CROWD.

AFTER PATENTED GHOUL INSULTS WERE FIRED OFF IN RABID SUCCESSION, RATTI WHIPPED OUT "THE SCUDPUCKER" FROM A BAG

AND THE GHOUL READIED ANOTHER BOOM-BOOM. THE BABYLON BUNCH WAS AS SICK AS I AM 'COZ THEY REALLY GOT A CHARGE OUTTA THAT SCUDPUCKER. A HOLLYWOOD SPECIAL EFFECTS TEAM COULDN'T HAVE DONE A BETTER JOB. THE SCUDPUCKER BLEW UP REAL GOOD!

OOPS, ALMOST FORGOT THE NEIL ZURKER MOBILE. THE GHOUL WAS ABOUT TO LEAVE THE STAGE WHEN HE SAW IT PLACED ON THE FLOOR — STOMP! THAT HOT GLUE HELD UP UNDER HEAVY DUTY GHOUL-LASH RATTI MANAGED TO RESCUE IT IN ONE CRUNCHED PIECE — NICE SOUVENIR!

THE GHOUL SIGNED AUTO-GRAPHS (HE EVEN SANG "PAH-PAH-COM-MOW-MOW" AS HE CUSTOMED A GUYS DEERSHIRT WITH A FELT-TIP.

TWO LUCKY BABYLONIANS MADE OFF WITH T-SHIRTS TOSSED FROM THE GHOUL. I DIDN'T GET A GOOD LOOK AT THEM IN THE DARK BUT THEY WERE A SORT-OF CHEESE WHIZ YELLOW (?) WITH THE GHOUL LOGO.

THE NEW SALEM WITCH HUNTERS TOOK THE STAGE AND THE CROWD LOVED IT. THE LEAD SINGER FOUND WHAT WAS LEFT OF THE SCUDPUCKER AND PUT IT ON! THESE GUYS COMPLETED THE NIGHT AND ALL I CAN SAY IS, "I HAD A BLOW-UP TIME" — END

MIKE ACTUALLY FOUND OUT ABOUT THIS DEAL INDIRECTLY THROUGH A GUY IN PA. (WHICH IS WHY I DID THE ZACHERLEY ARTICLE IN #1). YOU WIN A NEWSLETTER #2 AND AN AUDIO TAPE OF CARAGE (PUP-227) BAND TYPE STUFF (I CANT FIND THE SURF STUFF, MIKE). MIKE DIGS SURF.

I MUST MENTION HOWIE & LORRAINE S. OF NORTH ROYALTON WHO INVITED THE KAP OF TINS DOWN TO A LOCAL BOWLING ALLEY TO WITNESS A NEW, CRAZY BAND CALLED "A SCATTERING OF HATS". HOWIE SENT ME SOME ANCIENT "HALFTONE STATS" AND TO QUOTE HOWIE, "HERE'S A BLAST FROM (HIS) PAST." HE WRITES:

"APRIL OF 1971 FOUND HOWIE SNYDER IN POSSESSION OF ONE OF A LIMITED NUMBER OF "MR. RAFFLES" CHIMP DOLLS COURTESY OF H(COOLIHAN) AND B(IG) C(HUCK)... FOR THE MOVIE "THE BAREFOOT EXECUTIVE". HOWIE WAS ONE OF THE LUCKY WINNERS WHO WROTE A CAPTION FOR A STILL FROM THE MOVIE.

NEXT NEWSLETTER, WE'LL SEE HOWIE & HIS FRIENDS CIRCA '71 IN "GHOUL-CARBS".

OLDIES NIGHT ON BIG C & LIL J.

HOW MANY OF YOU HAVE A COSMIC SISTER-IN-LAW? THE KAPTIN DO! SHE DIALED ME UP AFTER 11:30 P.M. ON JUNE 1ST 1991 JUST TO TELL ME THAT GHOULARDI WAS BEING SHOWN ON T.V. 8! (FORTUNATELY, I HAD IT ON). THE FIRST BREAK REVEALED FOOTAGE OF A BASEBALL GAME (THE GHOULARDI ALL-STARS) WITH NARRATION BY ERNIE ANDERSON (AS GHOULARDI). WE THEN SAW OUR HERO PLAY WITH THE COOL-IT BOX (PROP-SENT IN BY A FAN) WHICH WAS IN BAD NEED OF A NEW BATTERY.

OLDIES NIGHT ALSO INCLUDED ANCIENT SKITS BY HOOLIHAN AND LIL JOHN. DID ANYONE ELSE SEE THIS?

DONT GET ALL BENT OUT OF SHAPE IF YOU DONT SEE YER NAME DROPPED HERE. THESE ARE JUST SOME OF THE CLEVELAND V.I.P.'S WHO SUPPORT GHOULX PARDI BECKER & HERZGS (NOW OF WMSI FM.) AND SCOTT (PA. PA.) HOWITT (SAME) ALL POKED THE KAPTIN IN ONE FORM OR ANOTHER. NOW HOW BOUT THOSE OTHER CLEVELAND MEDIA PERSONALITIES?

ANASTASIA AND JOYCE HALASA GET THE GHOUL FRIENDS AWARD. THEY BOTH CHECKED IN WITH THE KAP OF TINS... ANASTASIA SELLS HER COSMIC PICTURE WARES AT RECORD SHOWS. AND JOYCE TURNS THE KAP ON IN THE SCENE WITH HER ANCIENT CLEVE-ROCK-NEW. OF COURSE THERE'S BIG CHUCK, LIL JOHN, RON (THE SWEET) PEANUTS, STEVE (WAMI) P., MARTY (SUPERHOST) SULLIVAN AND TIM CONWAY WHO EVEN SENT ME AN AUTOGRAPHED PICTURE!

THERE'S A FEW GHOULX PARDI-ERS WHO ARE DYING TO KNOW IF IVE GOTTEN ANY RESPONSE FROM ERNIE ANDERSON.

IN 1988, I GOT AN ADDRESS FROM THE 25th ANNIVERSARY SHOW. IVE SENT STUFF THERE-AND...

IT DONT COME BACK! ERNIE... IF YER OUT THERE... GIVE ME A POKE WONT YOU?

WE HAVE MORE QUESTIONS THAN ANSWERS THIS TIME AROUND. MIKE GREENFIELD WANTS TO KNOW THE SONG PLAYED ON GHOUARDI THAT STARTS OUT WITH LAUGHTER.

I ASKED THE GHOUL AT THAT 7/24 GHOUL PARTY— HE BELIEVES THE SONG IN QUESTION IS "LAUGH-LAUGH" (OR LAFF-LAFF?) BY THE GIGGLER. NO INFO ON THE LABEL, DATE OR WHAT THAT SONG IS ON (45 OR LP... 45'S MY GUESS).

MIKE HAS PIECES OF IT ON OLD TAPE FROM AN ANCIENT REEL TO REEL THAT HE USED TO TAKE GHOUARDI'S SHOW WITH. WE NEED MORE STUFF LIKE THIS FOR A COMPLETE GHOUARDI DISCOGRAPHY IF YOU'VE GOT QUESTIONS OR ANSWERS— SEND THEM IN!

from the GROOVE YARD

IN COMMUNICATION WITH BIG CHUCK (GHOULARDI'S RIGHT HAND CONTROL ROOM MAN) HE SENT ME THE FOLLOWING MEMO:

FROM THE DESK OF THAT CERTAIN ETHNIC

DEAR KAPTAIN

OSCAR PETERSON DID PLAY AT DON KING'S CLUB AND SEVERAL OTHER PLACES IN CLEVELAND - IF YOU SEND ME A TAPE CASSETTE OF THE POLKA RECORDS... I MIGHT BE ABLE TO GIVE YOU SOME INFO -

BE GOOD

Big Chuck

B.C. (BEFORE CABLE?) REFERS TO DON KING (YES, THE DON KING - BOXING PROMOTER) WHO HAD A CLUB THAT FEATURED JAZZ GREATS. ERNIE & THE CHANNEL 8 GUYS USED TO HIT THE CLUB FOR ENTERTAINMENT. THE MUSIC THEY HEARD AT THAT CLUB STRONGLY INFLUENCED THE MUSIC PLAYED ON GHOULARDI'S SHOW.

I HAD HEARD "INCOHERENT BLUES" USED AS BACKGROUND MUSIC FOR GHOULARDI. MY BROTHER & I USED TO GO AROUND THE HOUSE AND DO A POOR IMITATION OF IT BUT HAD NO IDEA WHAT WE WERE DOING (OTHER THAN GHOUL NOISES). WE'D MUTTER, (NEXT COLUMN)

"GIMME-GIMME-GIMME SO A GIMME GO, GIMME-GIMME SO A GIMME GO." I MANAGED TO DRIVE THE PARENTS CRAZY! WHEN THINGS WERE GOING SLOW AT THE DINNER TABLE, A NEGATIVE HEAD SHAKE AND THE "GIMME SO" INVOCATION WOULD ADEQUATELY DENOUNCE A BOWL OF SQUASH GOING AROUND TO UNAPPRECIATIVE KIDS.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE 45 RECORD IS CALLED, "MUMBLES" AND I BELIEVE IT CAN BE HEARD IN THE MOVIE, THE GROOVE TUBE. IT'S DUBBED INTO WATERGATE HEARING CLIPS AND IS HILARIOUS. IT MUST HAVE ALSO BEEN PLAYED ON GHOULARDI AS THIS SONG SOUNDS REAL FAMILIAR TO ME, TOO.

SO (GIMME GIMME), ADD TO THE GHOULARDI DISCOGRAPHY, "MUMBLES" BY INCOHERENT BLUES BY THE OSCAR PETERSON TRIO (MERCURY 72342). IT OUGHT TO BE ON AN ALBUM BUT THAT'S ALL THE INFO I HAVE ON IT FOR NOW. -END

REMEMBER THESE NAMES? OXNARD, SPENCER, DOMANIK AND DOROTHY? IF I INCLUDED ALL OF 'EM, THIS COLUMN WOULD BE TRASHED! HERE'S A START:

OXNARD - STUFFED BIRD (CROW OR MINA?) THAT OUR HERO USED TO TALK TO (HE FINALLY BLEW IT UP ON T.V.).

SPENCER - A DUMMY PROPPED UP - KINDA LOOKED LIKE FRANK STEIN WITH A BEATLE WIG!

DOROTHY & DOMINIC WERE REAL PEOPLE THAT GHOULARDI MADE EFFIGIES (AND FUN) OF.

DOROTHY'S FACE WAS TAPED ON A BIKINI BARE

ON SATURDAY'S SHOW, ERNIE HAD A MICKEY MOUSE PLAYHOUSE. HE DECORATED IT WITH VIENNER ART AND HIS OWN... HOW ABOUT POLKA-DOT PAINT (MADE WITH A ROLLER WITH HOLES CUT OUT OF IT)?

OF COURSE, YOU HAD THE DEAD RUBBER BAT, SKULL ON A STICK, COOL-IT BOX (REALLY WORKED) AND ALL THOSE MODELS IVE SENT IN FOR GHOULARDI TO BLOW UP! I LEFT OUT A BUNCH-O-STUFF... VER TURN (BLUE). COOL IT WIT DA BOOM! -END

BROADCAST NEWS

Spreading the honors all around

• Everyone gets into the act at Broadcasters Hall of Fame

Maybe next year, the Broadcasters Hall of Fame will simplify things and release a list of the people it is not inducting.

At the rate the Akron-based group is going, it soon will have enshrined everyone who's ever set foot in a radio or TV station. Hell, maybe everyone who's even watched TV.

Founded in 1983 as the Akron Radio Hall of Fame, it inducted 187 people during its first seven years — an average of nearly 27 per class.

Then — presumably because there were no more candidates fitting the original description — it changed its name, opening the door to TV types. And it expanded the geographic eligibility from Akron to the cosmos.

During the intervening two years, 40 more people have been rammed through — including 18 Wednesday night during a 4½-hour marathon at the Quaker Square Hilton.

Hasn't anybody on the board heard the old expression about moderation in all things?

"They put in many people early to get it off the ground," says Jean Hartz, the group's president. "This year, we only have 18. So the number has been reduced."

Yeah, but 18 people is still about three times the number inducted by the Hall of Fame in Canton. When the football guys get in, it means something.

"We don't like being compared to the athletic halls of fame," she says. A more fair comparison, Hartz insists, is with "the entertainment field, the Emmys or Grammys. Think how many they nominate!"

Yeah, but those people aren't inducted into a hall of fame. It's a one-time deal. They just get a trophy.

"How about your rock 'n' roll?" she counters. "How many did they have last year?"

Ten, to be precise. But never mind. Hartz has heard the complaints before, and her bottom line is that things are being handled just as they should be.

She says there is no dissension on the hall's board of trustees, which numbers — we kid thee not — 19 people.

Maybe one reason so many broadcasters are paraded through is that the hall's operation is financed largely by contributions from inductees.

Yet despite its considerable shortcomings (not the least of which is a physical presence limited to an obscure corner at Quaker Square), the hall was a good idea. And the annual banquet is a hoot. Among other things, it's a great forum for old war stories, such as the ones told by WJW (Channel 8) anchorman Tim Taylor, a new inductee who doubled as master of ceremonies for a crowd of about 220.

Taylor offered a slew of tales about Dick Goddard, whom he compared to "the guy in school who always got everybody in trouble but never got caught."

Such as the time Taylor was on the See FAME, Page D2

• 227 people have been inducted into hall of for area broadcasting

air, reading this line: "Akron Mayor Tom Sawyer will not run again." And Goddard, standing at his weather map, said: "But Huck Finn will."

As you might imagine, people who have spent their lives in broadcasting tend to be better at making acceptance speeches than, say, the Plumber of the Year. But not always. And that contributes to the fun.

Take the case of former WAKR announcer Bob Friend, who introduced Channel 8 inductee Chuck Schodowski as "SCUD-owski." Three times.

Where are the Patriot missiles when you need them?

Schodowski (generally pronounced Sha-dow-ski) added to the levity when he intoned: "As I come to the twilight of a mediocre career, this is indeed a great honor."

But it wasn't all The Gong Show. One of the most stirring stories involved Taylor and his former boss, George Mamas, a member of the hall's board.

Taylor told the audience that, when Mamas hired him at age 21 at Akron radio station WCUE, employees had to work at the station for several months before being eligible for health insurance. Exactly one day before his insurance kicked in, Taylor had his first child — and a hefty hospital bill.

bill.

"So George quietly took the money from his own pocket," Taylor recalled. Mamas seemed deeply moved by Taylor's unexpected acknowledgment. (And yes, Taylor said later, he did pay Mamas back.)

The crowd also got some fun stuff from Paul Gilmore, the elderly but still witty former president of Canton's WHBC radio: "(The hall's) request for biographical information came at a very appropriate time — I was updating my obituary. . . . I'm getting old. If I were a dog, I'd be 511 years old."

ZZZZZZ

If you thought those periodic PBS fund-raising campaigns were boring, you ought to sit through an annual meeting. Whew.

Cleveland's WTVZ (Channel 25) staged one Thursday night at its studios on Brookpark Road — and taped it for broadcast today. If you suffer from terminal insomnia, tape this baby at 6 p.m. and your troubles are over.

The second half-hour, though, is worth a look. It consists of a discussion involving three prominent broadcasters who were asked to rule on theoretical news decisions.

News Director Phyllis Quail of WJW (Channel 8), commentator Dick Feagler of WKYC (Channel 3) and Les Crystal, executive producer of the MacNeil-Lehrer NewsHour, discuss war and suicide.

Now we're talking.

WE HAVE SOME NEW EVIDENCE ENTERED IN THE "WHAT WAS THE FIRST GHOULARDI SHOW" CONTEST. UNCLE DENNY V. (SEE GRAPH) FOUND IN AN AKRON PAPER (CIRCA '63) THAT GHOULARDI STARTED IN JANUARY '63! AN ARTICLE DATED 4-7-63 STATES, "THE FIRST FEATURE 'HOUSE ON HAUNTED HILL' WAS THE FILM THAT STARTED IT ALL." IT GOES ON TO SAY THAT "SHOCK THEATRE" WAS SO POPULAR (LARGE VOLUMES OF MAIL POURED IN) - A SECOND SHOW WAS IN THE WORKS FOR SATURDAY (4-13-63) FROM 6 TO 7:30. MOST REMEMBER THE FRIDAY NIGHT SHOWS BUT FORGET THE NEXT (OVA) DAY SHOW. THE SAME MOVIE (STARRING VINCENT PRICE) OPENED THE SATURDAY SHOW. LATER, AS THE MOVIES BECAME RE-RE-RUNS, OTHER MEANS OF ENTERTAINMENT WERE INSTALLED. LAUREL & HARDY AND FLASH GORDON EPISODES WERE SHOWN. BELOW - A RENDERING INCLUDING HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SAT. SHOW:

A CONTEST HELD BY MANNERS DURING THE MID-60'S FEATURED A WHITE CARDBOARD CUT-OUT OF OUR HERO, "GHOULARDI." KIDS WERE INVITED TO ABSCOND WITH THE GENERIC LIKENESS AND RETURNED WITH AN IMAGINATIVE CREATION REPRESENTING THE OUTLINES OF ERNIE ANDERSON'S HEAD ... IN COSTUME!

THE LOCAL MANNERS HAD A DISPLAY JUST AS ONE ENTERED THE DOOR, THE AUTHOR SUBMITTED A WATERCOLOR-BLUE CREATION WITH AN ATTEMPT OF GHOULARDI FEATURES VIA MAGIC MARKER. I HAD A LITTLE TROUBLE WITH THOSE (AS I RECALL), IT DISAPPEARED INTO A SEA OF GROTESQUE COUNTENANCES - A FEW WERE 3D! I CAN'T REMEMBER WHAT PRIZES WERE OFFERED OR RULES (NAME/ADDRESS WAS PROBABLY REQUIRED ON BACK). IF YOU CAN ADD TO OUR MANNERS MEMOIRS, DO IT! END.

IT'S BEEN A BLAST LISTENING TO RADIO IN N.E. OHIO. THE WAVES HAVE SUPPORTED THE LIKES OF ERNIE (GHOULARDI) ANDERSON WHK AND RON (THE GHOUL) SWEED ON WDMT. FINE THEN BUT WHAT NOW? THE PAST YEAR, GXP TRIED POKING THE LOCAL STATIONS FOR THEIR GHOULISH SUPPORT.

ABOVE - THE KAPTIN ENJOYS MIDDLE PIECE (PLASTIC) FROM A WEOL PIZZA! NOTE SANDY NELSON, BEATLES & HORNETS RECORDS! LAST FALL, THE KAPTIN (SAME CL FIREPLACE) WON A PIZZA FROM WEOL (930 A.M.). WALLY MINTUS (THANKS TO MARY-ANN IN AMHERST). THE PIE FUELED KAP AFTER THE RECORD ROUND-UP IN PARMA(?) WHERE HE UNCOVERED ABOVE DISPLAYED GHOUL-TUNES. AS OF YET, WE HAVEN'T HEARD OL' UNCLE WALLY REFER TO GXP. (MAYBE THIS ARTICLE WILL HELP) IN CANTON THERE'S A GUY NAMED RICO - WRONA.M. 1060 ... (CONTINUED PG)

A NEWSLETTER POURED IN VIA DALLAS TX FROM A "BROTHER RANDALL" WHO HAS (GET THIS!) A ROBERT TILTON FAN CLUB COMPLETE WITH NEWSLETTER! I THINK THE WHOLE THING'S DONE TONGUE-IN-CHEEK (TILTON'S CURRENTLY UNDER FIRE FOR HIS QUESTIONABLE CHURCH DOINGS). RANDALL SEEMS KINDA HIP ON GXP TOO! REACH OUT TO HIM AT 6102 E. MOCKINGBIRD #374, DALLAS, TX 75214 (TELLUM GXP IS ALIVE) NORTON RECORD FOLKS ARE COSMIC - THEY OFFER MANY OLDIES & WILD 60'S FLAVORED STUFF. GET A TASTE - WRITE: NORTON RECORDS, P.O. LAST FALL WAS A BLAST! DID YOU LET THE FUN PASS YOU BY? THE KAPTIN AND HOWIE DIDNT... BUT IT DIDNT QUITE HAPPEN AS PLANNED. IT SEEMS THE GHOL MATERIALIZED AT WILDWOOD WATER PARKS HAUNTED HOUSE (10-26-91)- THAT SAME NIGHT KAP WAS AT A HALLOWEEN BASH IN B'TOWN SO HOWIE HIT IT REPRESTIN' GXP (BELOW)

WE'LL HAVE TO CONTINUE THIS EPISODE NEXT ISSUE AS HOWIE'S CLASSIC MEETING WITH THE GHOL WOULD FILL THIS ISSUE. YOU SHOULD NOTE THE STRANGELY LIT AREA ON FROGGIE IN THE AFORE MENTIONED PIC WAS UNPLANNED AND REMAINS TO BE ONE OF THOSE "PHOTO-NOMENON" GHOSTS WHICH SURPRISED HOWIE. SAID PHOTO WAS CROPPED BUT ONCE VIEWED WHOLE, A SHAFT OF LIGHT ASCENDS UPON THE GHOL AND FROGGIE... SPOOKY.

MEANWHILE, IT WAS ANNOUNCED ON AN EARLY OCTOBER '91 BIG CHUCK & LIL JOHN SHOW THAT THE DUO WOULD BE APPEARING IN AKRON AT THE HAUNTED LAB AND SCHOOL HOUSE (SEE GXP#3). KAP FOUND THE AD AND PLANNED FOR A WEEKEND ATTACK (AS DID HOWIE W/ THE GHOL. KAP'S INTEREST MAINLY CENTERED ON PRESENTATION OF AUDIO TAPES MADE ESPECIALLY FOR THIS OCCASION (SPECIAL THANKS TO RICO & WRCW, CANTON AND MIKE OF YOUNGSTOWN FOR CONTEST OF TAPES). WE TALKED BRIEFLY ABOUT GHOLARD AND THE MUSIC PLAYED ON HIS SHOW. THEN THEY AUTOGRAPHED A PROMO PICTURE FOR ME AND I GRABBED A SECURITY GUY - GAVE HIM A QUICKIE (NEXT COLUMN)

LESSON IN SHMANKIE CAMERA OPERATION... AND THAT RESULT IS PUBLISHED HITHER!

ABOVE LTOR LIL JOHN, MEDIUM KAP & BIG CHUCK. B.C. WAS LATER HEARD ON WMJI'S NORM NITES 2-9-91 SHOW (AFTER THEIR I-X CENTER APPEARANCE). HE CALLED NORM AND TALKED ABOUT THE BEATLES TAPE SHOWN ON GHOLARDI (BEFORE ED SULLIVAN). IF YOU HEARD BIG CHUCK ON WMJI, WRITE AND I'LL INCLUDE YOU IN GXP#5. BELOW, HERE'S WHAT KAP FOUND OUT AT THAT AKRON HAUNT CARRIED ON IN THIS ADVENTURE

OF... from the GROOVE YARD BIG CHUCK REMINDED ME OF A TUNE COMPOSED ESPECIALLY FOR GHOLARDI - IT WAS PLAYED ON HIS SHOW. THE ARTIST WAS A MEMBER OF JIMMY McGRUFF'S JAZZ BAND IN THE 60'S - CHUCK COULDN'T REMEMBER HIS NAME. THE TUNE WAS AN INSTRUMENTAL CALLED (SOMETHING) "GHOLARDI" LIKE "SAFARI" OR "SURFIN' GHOLARDI" (NO LABEL INFO). THERE WERE BREAKS IN THE SONG - GHOLARDI WOULD INSERT A "COOL-IT" (ETC). KAP REMEMBERS THAT - BUT THAT'S IT. PLEASE WRITE IF YOU KNOW MORE. -END

RICO REMEMBERS GHOUARDI BY OCCASIONALLY ASKING SUCH TRIVIA QUESTIONS AS, "WHO SAID 'OVA-DAE'?" RICO INSERTS GHOUARDI WORDS IN HIS DIALOGUE AND LIVE COMMERCIALS. (IS HE REALLY GUE) LEEEEEEA-DAE!

Lead lightly, she is here
Lining the show:
Lead gently, she can hear
The daisies grow.

All her bright golden hair
Tarnished with rust,
She that was young and fair
Falling to dust.

Lily-like, white as snow,
She hardly knew
She was a woman, so
Sweetly she grew

Coffin board heavy stone
Lie on her breast.
I bury my heart alone,
She is at rest.

Peace, Peace, she cannot hear
Lying in pain;
All my life's blood here
Keeps oozing upon it

THE ETHNIC FACTIONS HAUNTING OHIO'S NORTHEAST MADE THEIR WAY ON T.V. VIA AT LEAST TWO MID-60'S PROGRAMS: POLKA VARIETIES & GHOUARDI, ETHNIC KING OF THOSE SHOWS (IN OUR HUMBLE OPINION)... FRANKIE YANKOVIC & HIS YANKS!

ON GHOUARDI, THE STORY GOES SOMETHING LIKE THIS - BIG CHUCK SCHODOWSKI WAS BECOMING ANNOYED BY THE CONSTANT RIBBING OF HIS SUBURB BY ERNIE ANDERSON (GHOUARDI). WORKING SOUND, CHUCK WARNED ERNIE, "THE NEXT TIME YOU SLAM PARMA, I'LL CUT YOUR MIC." INSTEAD, CHUCK PLAYED, "WHO STOLE THE KEESHKA" BY YANKOVIC. THE BEST IS KIELBASI! EVEN THOUGH BIG CHUCK WAS FAST ON THE KNOBS, ERNIE ALWAYS SEEMED TO WIN.

FOR T.V. GHOST HOST FANS P.O. BOX 505, BARBERTON, OH 44203

WEATHER OR NOT, HERE WE GO. WE'VE GOT SOME CATCHIN' UP (9/91) TO DO! BELOW, YOU CAN SEE KAPTIN IGNATZ WITH TH' BEST WEATHER MAN IN TH' WHOLE WOOL.

THAT'S DICK GODDARD TRADING KAP A WOOLLY BEAR PATCH FOR A GHOU-LARDI NEWSLETTER (AT GREAT NORTHERN BANK IN BARBERTON). MR. "G" APPEARS IN MANY BIG CHUCK & LIL JOHN SKITS AND PARTICIPATES IN THE BIG CHUCK & LIL JOHN ALL-STAR SPORTING EVENTS.

THE PATCHES HAVE CHANGED OVER TH' YEARS. TUNING IN ONE NIGHT, WE SAW TIM TAYLOR (NEWS) PRESENT DICK WITH A USED 1ST EDITION PATCH (ULTRA RARE). IF YOU GET A CHANCE TO MEET D.G., TELL HIM EXP SENTCHYA. END

RADI-OVA-DAE

THE "ETHER" DAY, KAP CALLED UP WJMP 1520 A.M. (AKRON, OH AREA) AND REQUESTED A "GHOU-LARDI TUNE". THE D.J. RESPONDED WITH SOME VENTURES IN A FLASH! SUPER JUMP!

WJMP F.M. OF CLEVELAND HAD A 50'S CORONATION BALL (3-21-92) "PAPA-OO NEW NICK" WAS PLAYED THRU TH' P.A. - THE KAPTIN KNOWS THIS AS HE WON TICKETS ON D. SANDERS' SHOW (HE LET KAP SAY "HI" TO ALL YOU GHOU-LARDI FANS). SAY HI! SCOTT-MEISTER, BUCKER & HEGGS, ETC. FROM A DISTANCE (ON STAGE). WHAT A BLAST THAT WAS!

WJMP F.M. IS NOW THE END. SAY HAY, BIG DAVE (SALESMAN) TANX 4 TH' ANCIENT PHR. PKG!

From the GROOVE YARD...

HERE'S THE ORIGINAL LP COVER (FRONT & BACK) OF FRANKIE YANKOVIC & HIS YANKS. BIG CHUCK SAYS THE "KEESHKA" SONG WAS PLAYED TO MASK THE PARMA JOKES TOLD BY GHOUARDI. WE WONDER IF A 45 RECORD OF THAT SONG EXISTS (NO INFO AVAILABLE). THE LABEL IS COLUMBIA (STEREO LP #CS 8801).

GXP TRIED TO CONTACT THE POLKA HALL OF FAME IN CLEVELAND ABOUT "WHO STOLE THE KEESHKA" BUT GOT NO RESPONSE. WE KNOW MR. YANKOVIC NOW RESIDES IN FLORIDA - AND HOPE WE CAN GET A COPY OF THIS GXP TO HIM 'COZ WE LUV HIM (IF ONLY FOR TH' SONG).

THE DARKER SIDE? P.II

ABOVE "DARKER" INVENTOR JOHN G. OF SHELBY WITH HIS '90S STUFF (LOOKS LIKE HE DIGS TH' BEATLES). JOHN GOT A GHOUARDI POSTCARD BACK (IN) FOR ALL HIS PKGD EFFORTS (ITS SINCERED).

HE ALSO MENTIONED "THE INDESTRUCTIBLE MAN" MOVIE SHOWN ON GHOUARDI'S SHOW ('BOUT '55 W/LOW CHANCE). ANYONE WITH MORE INFO ON TH' CARD OR MOVIE, WRITE! IT'S FOR GUYS LIKE JOHN THAT WE DEDICATE TH' ABOVE "GROOVE YARD" COLUMN. WE'LL TRY A DISCOGRAPHY SOON - J.G. TANX. END

ROCKIN' 50's

DEDICATED TO THE TRUE ROCK 'N' ROLL ERA

Here is a short note from BILL GRIGGS

Hi Kaptin,

Good to hear from you again.

Yeh, I'd be happy to have you mention the magazine in your newsletter. The issue with Zachery was '86 (the Chuck Berry issue) which is $4.00 postpaid in the States and Canada.

Who hangs around "Bikini Girl City"? I might want to visit there next time I'm in the area.

Take care,

Bill Griggs

The Ghoul's Alive!

JOHN G. OF SHELBY REPORTS QUITE BY ACCIDENT THAT WHILE ON VACATION 1/82 IN MICHIGAN, HE SPIED AN AD FOR THE GHOUL (RON SWEED). HERE IT IS:

PAUL M. OF MICHIGAN SENT GXP A MASSIVE PKG OF GHOUL-MANIA (1/93). ALSO WITH THE ABOVE AD, HE'S INCLOSED MANY RECENT ARTICLES AND EVENTS OF THE GHOUL. FUTURE ISSUES WILL EXPOUND UPON SAID BRAIN MATTER. AKA XEROX. BRIEFLY, THE GHOUL SEEMS TO BE "WOLVERINIZED" NOW AS PAUL SENT EVIDENCE OF HALLOWEEN & XMAS GHOUL APPEARANCES. PAUL HAS SUPPLIED GXP WITH MANY PICTURES AND EVEN A T-SHIRT (AND IN TH' 60'S, WE SAID PAUL WAS DEAD...)

GHOUL FANS STAY TUNED. OHIO GUYS TAKE NOTE - PAUL'S CARRY'N TH' GHOUL-LOAD... GOT FRIENDS IN MI? ASK 'EM FOR GHOUL INFO. - END

The "G" Man Lives

RICHARD "G" OF N.J. FAME ATTENDED THE MAY 1992 CHILLER THEATRE, TOY MODEL & FILM EXPOS. HE WRITES: "OF SPECIAL INTEREST WAS RAY HARRYHAUSEN, WHO BROUGHT ... CREATURE MODELS (USED) IN HIS FILMS." JOE BOB BRIGGS ALSO MADE A SPECIAL GUEST APPEARANCE AND RICH TOLD OF THE WILD SHOW "JOE" DID. RICH PUFFED TH' P.O. BOX WITH PICTURES & FREEBIES. PICKED UP AT BOTH THE MAY AND OCTOBER '92 EXPOS.

OF COURSE, ZACHERLEY WAS TOPS AT BOTH SHOWS. RICH WAS EXCITED ABOUT ZACH'S ELECTRODE TOY WHICH WAS DEMON STRATED ... AND A RARE PILOT FOR ZTV WHICH WAS NOT PICKED UP BY ANY NETWORKS (FOOLS). SOME SPECIAL GXP PEOPLE WILL RECEIVE A POSTER XEROX (OH BOY) OF A GIFT RICH SENT GXP. MORE "G" MAN LATER. - END

DR. SHOCK'S (X-RAY CHILLER) THEATER - END

A black and white photograph of a cluttered room, likely a dormitory. The background wall is covered with several posters, including one of a person in a dynamic pose. In the foreground, a desk or table is crowded with various items: a mug with a graphic, a box labeled "SPOOK", and other miscellaneous objects. The overall scene suggests a lived-in, personalized space.

WOOLWORTH FANS WILL RECOGNIZE THE NUTTY-MADS.
THERE'S A SPOOK CARD BOX

HERMAN GOES HOME

FRED GWYNNE
AKA HERMAN OF

THE MUNSTERS DIED - AGE 66 (7-2-93) JUST A FEW DAYS AFTER SPANKY McFARLAND. FRED WAS A MULTI TALENTED ACTOR. DO THEY ALWAYS GO IN BUNCHES? SEEMS THAT WAY.

SPANKY'S GONE

THANKS TO THE ROADRUNNER VIDEO PEOPLE, KAP GOT TO MEET WITH SPANKY McFARLAND TWICE (91-92) BEFORE HE DIED (6-30-93). HE GAVE KAP SOME EXCELLENT ADVICE!

BEFORE EHOUARDI, CAPTAIN PENNY RULED W/ 3 STOOGES & 'LITTLE RASCAL' FEATURES. AT THE END, CAPT. WOULD ECHO SPANKY'S WORDS, "YOU CAN FOOL SOME OF THE PEOPLE ALL OF THE TIME... BUT YOU CANT FOOL MOM."

CAPPY BABY WAS SEEN ON THE RECENT EHOUARDI SPECIAL. WRITE IF YOU WANT MORE. END

WITH LAKE ERIE AS A BACK-DROP, BILLY JOEL MAKES HISTORY AT THE ROCK & ROLL HALL OF FAME GROUNDBREAKING STAGE. CHUCK BERRY & PETE TOWNSEND (WITO?) AND A HOST OF HALL OF FAME PERSONNEL MADE FOR A SPECTACULAR DAY.

WITO'S RAVENNA MICELI BROADCASTED LIVE FROM THE SHOW. (BEHIND THE SCENES). KAP GOT HIS FREE PAINTER'S CAP? SURE WAS NEAT TO SEE NORM N. NITE UP THERE IN THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT.

CRAAAZY. MAN!

OUT CHICAGO WAY, THERE'S A 'REAL GONE GUY' WHO CALLS HIMSELF "GHOUL DADDY". HE'S THE HOST OF A CABLE ACCESS SHOW- CINEMA DEMENTIA....

GHOUL DADDY RUNS THE OLD B MONSTER FLICKS AND EVEN DOES TH' OL' BREAK-IN SHITCK KNOWN TO ZACH & GHOUARDI. YOU WINDY CITY CATS SHOULD WRITE DAT CABLE COMPANY (NEXT COL 1)

THE 1970's

TIME TO "KETCHUP" ON SOME STUFF US N.E. OHIOANS HAVE TAKEN FOR GRANTED.

LIL JOHN (OF BIG CHUCK AND...) WAS FIRST SEEN IN A SKIT SPOOFIN' THE RAY STEVENS SONG, "BRIDGET THE MIDGET" IN 1970. SO THE STORY GOES, DICK BLAKE DANCE STUDIO IN CLEVELAND WAS CONTACTED FOR A FEMALE MIDGET... THE CLOSEST THING FOUND WAS LIL JOHN RINALDI. HE DID SUCH A GOOD JOB THAT HE BECAME A REGULAR IN B.C. & H (COLIHAN) SKITS.

IN THE LATE '70'S, 'HOOLY' WENT ON TO WARMER WEATHER PASTURES (I.E. FLA) AND LIL JOHN FILLED THE BILL (INSERT CASH REGISTER NOISE).

BESIDES HIS TELEVISION CAREER, L.I.J. DOES ADS FOR LOCAL BUSINESSES AND RUNS A JEWELRY STORE IN CLEVELAND, (CALLED OF COURSE - RINALDI JEWELERS, 2028 E. 9TH ST.) B.C. & L.I.J. ARE STILL GOIN' STRONG (A GOOD GROUP).

MUSHMOUTH MARIANO

THE ABOVE HUMAN GARBAGE (FLOOD?) DISPOSAL WAS A COMMON SIGHT ON EARLY BIG CHUCK & HOOLHAN SHOWS. "MUSHMOUTH MARIANO" (LAST NAME SOUNDS LIKE POO-CHETTI) "P." CONSTANTLY TOPPED OTHER COMPETITORS WITH THE AMAZING ABILITY TO STUFF MORE PIZZA INTO HIS FACE (IN A LIMITED AMOUNT OF TIME). TO OUR KNOWLEDGE, MARIANO WAS BEATEN TWICE - BUT THE GERMAN SHEPHERD WAS DISQUALIFIED BECAUSE IT WAS A DOG. THE OTHER PERSON WAS A GUY BUT HIS NAME ESCAPES US. BELOW, MARIANO TAKES ON A FUTURE CLEVELAND POLITICIAN - GARY KUCINICH! NOTE B.C. REFEREE 'N' & PRETTY HELPERS!

Larry's SPECIAL K's

THAT'S "K" AS IN "KNIF KRAFTS" (HOLD TH' CHEESE), MR. LARRY (IN THE WOOLY BEAR CAPITOL OF THE WORLD) HAS BEEN TALKED ABOUT ON B.C. & L.I.J. CONCERNING HIS KOSMIC KRAFTS - PRESENTED TO THEM AS WELL AS THE KING HIMSELF... GHOUARDI.

AND CHECK 'EM OUT - THAT'S A CALENDAR, STICKERS AND A GHOUARDI BOOM BOOM CLOCK! LARRY ALSO REMEMBERS THE KROGER GOODIES OFFERED BACK IN THE '60'S. HE WRITES, "SWEAT-SHIRTS... COST $5, I GOT TO SEE (ERNEAT KROGER'S) IN LORAIN AT WESTGATE SHOPPING CENTER." COLORS OF SWEATS WERE BLACK, AQUA BLUE, LIME GREEN & TANNED BROWN, W/WHITE FUZZ. GHOUARDI HEAD & HIS "SAYINGS". SOME OF THE "SAYINGS" WERE: TURN BLUE, STAY SICK, PA PA-BOOM MOW MOW, HEY GROUP, COOL IT, WITH THE BOOM-BOOMS, CAMERA 4 YOU'RE UGLY (SEE LOAD-OVER)

LOAD OF LARRY

FROM THE GROOVE YARD

IT'S CLARIFICATION TIME - WE COULD DWELL ON THEMES FROM LAUREL & HARDY, BOWERY BOYS & MAYBE EVEN FLASH GORDON (CUE VACUUM CLEANER NOISE) BUT WE'RE MOSTLY INTERESTED IN THE INSTRUMENTALS GHOULARDI USED AS BACKGROUND MUSIC. MIKE G. OF Y-TOWN WRITES, "I'M CERTAIN... WHO STOLE THE KEESHKA (VERSION) IS THE ONE BY THE MATYS BROTHERS, NOT FRANKIE YANKOVIC'S." (ANYBODY DISAGREE?) BEFORE WE FORGET, THE ABOVE PHOTO WAS FROM A B.C & L.J. OLDIES SHOW - ERNIE USE TO CUT IN ON THE FLASH FUN. REMEMBER THE SALUTE? END

60's GHOULARDI APPEARANCE

MARK N. OF COLUMBUS, OH WROTE: "(GHOULARDI) CAME TO ASHLAND, OHIO... I HAD TO GO (FROM NEW LONDON). THE MAIN STREET WAS CLOSED OFF & A STAGE WAS SET UP IN THE MIDDLE OF THE STREET... Monstrology MODELS

1993 looks to be an exciting year for MONSTROLOGY MODELS. We're pleased to announce our first officially licensed resin model kit of none other than ZACHERLEY, the "cool ghoul" himself!

In keeping with the MONSTROLOGY spirit of selecting "historical" horror figures we felt "ZACH" would be a natural.
ZACHERLEY rates a solid '10' on the nostalgia scale. Who can forget his appearance on the cover of Famous Monsters of Film and his weirdly witty out-landishly serene comedic antics on Chiller Theatre? This will be a 1/6 scale kit with bave; release date set for Summer 1993
The kit is sculpted by Jan Wang.

LETTER FROM TH' LAND OF CAPT. PENNY & UPBEAT SHOW!

August 23, 1993

Dear Mr. Ignatz
Thanks so much for your recent letter regarding "Name the Falcons." I think there's a little confusion over the story, and I think I can clear it up.
"Name the Falcons" was not really a contest -- there was never a prize offered or a drawing for a grand prize. "Name the Falcons" was simply a way for people to suggest names for the two birds. We combed through the nearly 1,000 suggestions we received, then chose about 50 pairs of names that would work. Then we had someone from the Cleveland Orchestra, and NEWSCHANNEL 5, and the Ohio Department of Natural Resources narrow the list down again to the best three pairs. The names were actually voted on by viewers, by calling our computer telepoll. (The three pairs of names people voted on were Freedom and Liberty, Erie and Cuyahoga, and Stars and Stripes.) The names receiving the most votes was Stars and Stripes.
I remember your postcard, since you had drawn two very cute and curious birds on the addressed side. But really it's fortunate for us that "Name the Falcons" was not a contest, since out of the suggestions, three dozen people suggested "Stars and Stripes." So officially, you might say that your suggestion was taken and the birds were named by you (and several other people who had the same idea -- but it's your magazine, so that's up to you!).
Thanks so much for sending us a copy of Ghouliardi. The people on the staff who are from Cleveland really got a kick out of it!
I hope this answers your question -- please feel free to write again or call if you have any other questions (431-3665). "Tanx" for your interest in "Name the Falcons" and in NEWSCHANNEL 5.

Sincerely,
Rita Kueber

Can't Figure

Ghoulardi's A Surprise Smash

By JACK MAHUR

Ernie Anderson scratched his head as he looked at a pile of fan mail he was reading... and you couldn't blame him.

"I see it," he said, "but I don't know it. I never imagined the same words could be used like this."

The fan mail was not for Ernie Anderson, of course. All of it was addressed to Ghoulardi, a wild character whom Anderson brings to life on Friday nights for WJW's Shock Theater.

Ghoulardi was created a few weeks ago when WJW purchased a package of late-model horror and science fiction films.

The station figured the ghoul might be the character to help viewers forget they were watching a bunch of mediocre movies.

The station was right.

In less than three months the station has received more than 10,000 letters for Ghoulardi, sometimes mailed to "Ghoulardi" or "Ghoulardi, Ernie" (Ernie Anderson isn't sure how to spell it, but these autographs "Ghoulardi" although the WJW publicity office calls him "Ghoulardi").

The volume of mail prompted WJW to schedule a second science fiction film for Saturdays from 6 to 7:30 p.m. beginning this week. The host, of course, will be Ghoulardi. The first feature, "House on Haunted Hill," was the film that started it all on Shock Theater back in January.

"The reaction to the show is phenomenal," says Anderson. "It's just like old-time TV when all you had to do was watch on the air and you were great."

"Remember the novelty of TV? Like people would see a performer somewhere and say, 'Hey, I saw you once on TV last night. Loved it.' 'I thought the public was jaded by now, but I was wrong. And how about my jokes? They're really corny, aren't they?'"

This is ironic because the off-camera Anderson isn't corny at all. In anything, the guy is too hip, too far out. I mean, he really plays the role.

He starts his sentences with "Like..." and ends them all with the Mort Sahl-type question, "right?" He calls people "baby," and always "Capitla" or "Capitla" - He never LEAVES the scene.

Anderson used to work for the network on a feature film program called Ernie's Place. One of his frequent guests was Tom (Tommy Conway, now a star on ABC's "Muller's Key").

"Tom and I created the Shock Theater," says Anderson. "We started working together at WJW where we wrote the 'The Wilson Show'."

"We lasted about five weeks because KVM didn't dig our humor. A lot of our jokes didn't go over with the audience, either, although I still think they were funny."

Conway-Rose Marie visited WJW in 1961 and met comic Conway and straight man Anderson. He told them about the show when they returned to California.

"Steve went for the comic, but he said he would be the straight man," explains Anderson. Conway became a regular on Allen's Show and has been on TV ever since.

Ernie isn't bitter about Conway's discovery. Quite the contrary. Conway's success has put Anderson on the threshold of a double break... maybe.

"Tom and I are making a comedy album for Columbia records," says Anderson. "Tom is big enough now to make certain demands and when Columbia asked him who he wanted as a partner on the record, he said, 'Ernie Anderson,' and Columbia said, 'Who's he?'"

The album will certainly be released late this year.

"Like Columbia says right away, but with some right away could be next year, right?"

But Anderson isn't anxious. He appears so relaxed—even on camera—you almost expect him to fall asleep in the middle of a sentence.

Until recently his work had been limited to staff announcing—reading news shows and other feature film programs—and the Ghoulardi bit.

Now he is second banana on Dale Young Time, WJW's daily variety program. Anderson explained Jim Conway, who now conducts all his time to the Adventure Road series.

Anderson has a busy schedule away from the station, too. "I'm one of the most successful free-lance announcers in the area," he says, "although I never thought about free-lance work until I was forced to."

"See, I came to Cleveland in 1956 and worked six months as a day writer at WJW. I was making $400 a week until they let me go. That happened when the station changed its format to the 'Top 40, sex and show' stuff. They said they could get four announcers for what they were paying me."

"I was out of work for several weeks and had to find something to do... so I tried free-lancing. It's great!"

"Like where else can you work as hard or two on a series of commercials and then get paid $50,000 at the end of the year?"

Anderson gets into his Ghoulardi role by applying a fake mustache and beard with rubber cement.

"I wore a third eye on our opening show," he says, "but it kept falling off."

Most of the eerie effects on Shock Theater are created by station engineers who provide the lighting and the echo chamber.

Anderson admits most of the show and he is grateful to the engineers for the way they pick up his ideas.

CHICAGO SUN-TIMES 4-5-94

Barney Pip, one of Chicago's top rock jocks from 1965 to 1970 at the old WCFL, died in an auto accident Feb. 17 in Indianapolis. His body was not identified until last week, according to a longtime friend. In his "Super CFL" heyday, Pip commanded a 25 percent share of nighttime listeners with his trademark trumpet and "Turn Into Peanut Butter" slogan. Pip, who was 57 and whose real last name was Pippenger, had three ex-wives and seven children.

Ghoulardi: Cleveland's "Explosive" Horror Host!

Because his career was such an interesting one, I was surprised that Ernie "Ghoulardi" Anderson was not mentioned in the TV Horror Hosts' article which appeared in Filmfax #13. At the same time I was glad. Due to a long-time interest in Anderson's career, and armed with my personal collection of "Ghoulardi" memorabilia, I immediately sat down and wrote this addendum to your previous article.

This art appeared on the Ghoulardi postcard, sent to fans upon request.

Anderson was presented straight, sans gags. Ghoulardi was always seen full-face with a light shining up from below to give his features a spooky, shadowy effect. He also sported a "third eye," and for additional atmosphere, a wavy effect was engineered on the TV screen. But this pseudo-serious phase was short-lived. The wavy effect was abandoned because it proved to be more distracting than spooky. And the third eye stubbornly refused to stay put, once falling off in the middle of one of Ghoulardi's scary monologues, prompting the stage crew to crack up in a highly audible fashion. Anderson also had trouble keeping his false beard and moustache secured to his face, which brought even more laughter from the crew. Ultimately, Anderson abandoned his persona as a scary horror host. From then on it was wisecracks with the crew and comical film clips inserted into the Z-grade horror movies he showed.

From January 1963 to November 1966, Ernie "Ghoulardi" Anderson appeared as a horror movie host on WJW-TV in Cleveland, Ohio where, over the years, he gained a huge following of devoted fans, many of whom will remember him for the rest of their lives. At one point, he became so popular that Manners' "Big Boy" Restaurants in the Cleveland area named a green milkshake after him, called the "Big Ghoulardi." Personal appearances by Anderson's unique character were also in demand at numerous social and charitable functions. In fact, on one occasion, the act which preceded him was literally booed off the stage to hasten the appearance of Ghoulardi.

Prior to his stint as a horror movie host, Anderson worked at KYW-TV in Cleveland as an announcer. It was there that he met and teamed up with soon-to-be-famous comedian Tom Conway. The pair eventually moved over to WJW where Anderson hosted a morning program called Ernie's Place. The comic skits on this program, performed by both Anderson and Conway, became quite popular, and word of Conway's comedic talents spread quickly. After changing his first name to Tim and receiving national exposure on The Steve Allen Show, Conway was signed to co-star on McHale's Navy.

Anderson, however, stayed on in Cleveland and started appearing as a night film host "Ghoulardi" on WJW's Friday night Shock Theater. After a few months the missing "h" was inserted and Anderson became "Ghoulardi." The reason for the missing "h" was never explained.

The first few weeks of Shock Theater...

Unfortunately, many of the parents of Ghoulardi's viewers did not see the humor in these anti-establishment antics, and as a result of their protests, Ghoulardi was forced to discontinue his pyrotechnic activities on the air. He was also politely asked to tell his fans on the air that, as he put it, they should also "cool it with the boom boom."

As Ghoulardi, Anderson also hosted a Saturday early-evening program which, during its nearly four-year run, included The Outer Limits, the Bowery Boys, various horror and science fiction films and episodes of the Buster Crabbe Flash Gordon serials.

In late 1966, Anderson left Cleveland and headed for Hollywood with his wife and five children. With former partner Tim Conway's help, he secured a couple of acting jobs. Soon he and Conway again became a comedy team and even made several appearances on programs such as The Hollywood Palace. A couple comedy albums were cut on Liberty Records but, because of Conway's previous commitments, the teaming was short-lived.

Anderson's superb speaking voice and his prior announcing experience eventually helped him to secure the prestigious position as official announcer for ABC's prime time line-up of television programs. To this day he is still announcing shows and voicing commercials. But this Ghoulardi fan has to admit one thing. Whenever I hear that deep, serious resonant tone he exudes, I can't help but think that it's all just an act, that somewhere behind that melodious masculine voice there still exists a mischievous little boy with a pocketful of fireworks.

-Mark D. Neel Columbus, OH

A couple of years before Ghoulardi, Anderson hosted "Ernie's Place."

A comic Ghoulardi hosted this early Saturday evening time slot on WJW.

A serious Ghoulardi hosted "Shock Theater" at 11:20 on Fridays in 1963.

A busy Ghoulardi also hosted "Outer Limits" (episodes 5, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100).

Two sports shows set for weekend

Chapel Hill event continues, and Early Birds visit the armory in Stow

It's show time, with the Greater Akron Sportsman Show continuing at Chapel Hill Mall and the Early Bird Show getting under way Saturday in Stow.

The Greater Akron show, now in its 58th year, is the oldest of its kind in the state. It is sponsored by the Goodyear Hunting and Fishing Club, and proceeds are used for area conservation projects.

Highlights will include the appearance this evening, 6:30-8:30, of television personalities Big Chuck and Little John.

Those who attend the show may become eligible to win blimp rides, a set of Goodyear tires, a shotgun and a rod and reel combination. Ohio and Canadian fishing licenses as well as Goodyear Hunting and Fishing Club memberships will be on sale.

Show hours are mall hours, the show continues through Sunday and there is no admission charge.

Was Fox TV sly with FCC?

• Ownership of network is in question. Outcome may jeopardize recent deal

BY EDMUND L. ANDREWS

WASHINGTON: Just when it seems that Rupert Murdoch is about to reach the major leagues of broadcast television, he has landed in trouble with federal regulators who suspect that he intentionally misled them nine years ago concerning the extent of foreign ownership of Fox Television Stations Inc. Federal law prohibits a foreign company from owning more than 25 percent of an American radio or television station. Violation of the law by Murdoch, especially if the facts were

• NAACP complaint exposed network ownership

misrepresented to the Federal Communications Commission, could mean that he would have to sell his stations.

The issue could also greatly complicate Fox's recent deal to acquire a 20 percent stake in New World Communications Group Inc., which owns or is buying 12 stations, including Cleveland's WJW (Channel 8), which would change their network affiliations to Fox.

A issue is whether the News Corp., based in Australia and controlled by Murdoch, effectively owns the stations. Lawyers for Fox say no law was violated and they fully disclosed the ownership structure in 1985.

In reviewing that ownership, the FCC faces difficult choices. If it concludes that it was misled and takes the harshest possible action, it would jeopardize the Fox Television Network, which has created substantial new competition for the big three commercial television networks, ABC, CBS and NBC.

The FCC has long sought to encourage new television networks. To encourage Fox's growth over the years, the FCC has exempted it from a number of regulations that apply to the other networks.

But the facts disclosed by Fox in response to recent questions by the FCC suggest the company was less than candid in 1985, when most FCC officials did not have the impression that Murdoch was paying only a nominal amount for majority control of the stations. The company acknowledged late last month that the News Corp. had supplied virtually all of the cash needed to buy six big television stations from Metromedia Inc. for $1.6 billion.

Despite that, News Corp. received only 24 percent of the stock in the holding company that acquired the stations, while Murdoch ultimately received 76 percent.

During the process of buying the Metromedia stations, Murdoch became a naturalized American citizen and created a new holding company called Twentieth Holdings Inc. that would actually own the properties.

The new information about the actual investments came to light in a complaint brought earlier this year by New York branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which had been trying to block Fox from buying a television station in Philadelphia. Fox abandoned that effort voluntarily, but asked the commission to resolve the issue of "alien ownership."

The NAACP has argued that minority groups will have an even more difficult time buying broadcast stations if foreign corporations are allowed to bid up prices.

BACKGROUND

On May 23, Fox announced that by the end of the year, WJW (Channel 8) will drop its 40-year CBS affiliation in favor of Fox.

The deal with New World Communications, the company that owns seven television stations, including Channel 8, left the future unclear for WOIO (Channel 19), which will lose its Fox affiliation.

Fox is to invest $500 million in New World.

PARMA PIEROGIES

TANK, HOWIE

Pierogies, Food of the Gods

BY KATHLEEN KISNER

When Parma Pierogies East opens at 3445 Mayfield Road on April 22, owner Mary Polinski hopes to hook East Siders on pierogies. Her second fast-food restaurant will replicate the decor and menu of the original store, bringing a little bit of Parma to Lyndhurst.

"We already have tons of people driving from the East Side to Parma for our pierogies," says Polinski. "We're also getting ready to franchise, and franchisers like to see two successful restaurants in operation before they take the leap."

When cornish loaves peaked in the '80s, bland "vortses" like meat loaf, lined chicken, pork chops and marinated potatoes were suddenly trendy. Conspicuous was the absence of ethnic Mom foods like pierogies, the Polish stuffed dumplings which are now sold mainly at church suppers and hole-in-the-wall bars.

Polinski, a former Bell Telephone Co. employee, noted her lack and decided to cash in on the common food of her childhood.

"I'm Slovak and my grandmother used to make pierogies, but it was a hassle and time-consuming," she recalls. "Eventually we started getting them at churches and local bars, but we had to call ahead and they were always running out. So I came up with the idea for a pierogie restaurant, and opened three years ago."

Polinski, who isn't shy about promoting her dream, has invited President Clinton to the East Side grand opening. His repeat visits to Parma Pierogies netted her national press and an interview in the inauguration as one of Clinton's Faces of Hope.

In honor of her new restaurant, she will introduce new menu items this month, among them a pizza pierogie, a chocolate desert pierogie, and her newest creation, the rogie, a lightly fried pierogie on a bun.

"Rogies are like little mini-burgers, the kind that have become so popular at 'We Gotta Eat' she says. "Only they'll have pierogies on the bun instead of hamburgers."

The rogie will come in three varieties: the spud-rogie (a potato-based pierogie on a potato roll), the corn-rogie (a sauerkraut rogie with Stadium mustard), and the zrogie (a spinach pierogie with sour cream).

Who knows! It all goes according to plan. Polinski may become the queen of ethnic fast foods. At 60 cents a pierogie.

CAFE

the price is right, and there's also the health factor: only one gram of fat per pierogie, and 500 calories per six pierogies.

Michael Sarro, owner of en Provence and The Bistro at 2195 Lee Road in Cleveland Heights, doesn't know whether to laugh or cry. This week he opens a new restaurant, Michael Michael, on the site of his former French eatery.

Sarro describes it as a change in concept.

"What we'll do is make the restaurant user-friendly for this area. We suffered under a reputation as the most expensive restaurant outside of Tokyo. People thought it was too wonderful and would only go there once a year on their birthday."

Michael Michael will offer Americanized, lighter food, smaller portions, quicker service and a new bar. The menu will include Texas wings, French ribs, burgers, prime rib, pasta dishes, seafood and vegetarian items.

East Side Man's, which opened last month in the old Chi-Chi's at 4005 Mayfield Road, is a fun concept for diners who like a gamut along with large portions.

Mary Polinski and her Parma Pierogies.

tions of American Italian food. The New York Little Italy decor features an area designed to resemble an Italian grocery store, a cappuccino stand, and a shop which sells Italian necessities.

Popular entrees include spaghetti and meatballs, wood-burned brick-oven pizzas, thousand chicken, and oven-baked pasta.

Warning: The restaurant's popularity has meant up to 40-minute waits, even on weekdays. Think about going early.

Owned by Morgan's Foods Inc., a Brunswick-based restaurant company, this is the third East Side Man's in Ohio. The other two are located in the Akron area.

Tired of the same-old, same-old dining experiences in the Flats? Check out The Boat Club, a seven-year-old private club located near to Shooter's, which just opened its restaurant to the public this month, by reservation only. Executive chef Richard Barci's menu includes steaks, pasta dishes, seafood, chicken dishes and daily specials, with an average check of $15.

Last month The Watermark added a warm Sunday brunch, with eggs benedict, omelets made on the line, Caesar salads, carved roast, pasta, sorrel, and more, 11 am-3 pm, $11.95 for adults and $6.95 for children. (Young children can eat for free.) You can eat, loaf and walk it off later, indulging your spring fever as you stroll along the river.

The Ghoul returns

By GARY A. HEMPHILL
Entertainment Editor

CLEVELAND — The Ghoul, who ranted the airwaves of local television here in the early '70s with his abrasive personality, is back.

He debut's on Channel 61 today as host of "The Saturday Noon Movie," which will feature a line-up of horror movies like "Children Shouldn't Play With Dead Things" and "Don't Look In The Basement." His is the first show that Channel 61 has produced locally. It's being taped at a Beachwood studio.

Ron Sweed, who grew up in Euclid and now resides in Lake County, is The Ghoul. He returned to Northeast Ohio television after spending seven years on radio and television in Detroit.

In addition to his television show, he has an all-night radio show Saturdays on WDMT-FM 108, an urban contemporary station that plays mostly rhythm and blues.

Both shows are filled with zany antics and skits, many of them offensive, and many of them are verbal attacks on other media personalities in Cleveland.

Sweed is glad to be back working in the Cleveland market. "I never really wanted to go to Detroit," he said. "But sometimes in this business you don't have much choice where you're going."

Sweed began his career when he was 13, working on the set of Ernie Anderson, who hosted a movie show here as Ghoulardi before moving on to better things in California. He also worked with Big Chuck and Little John as a production assistant before getting his own show on Kaiser Broadcasting's Channel 61 in 1971. The show lasted until 1975.

"Everybody knew Kaiser was selling its stations and Cleveland was going to be one of the first to go," Sweed said. So he left the station in January 1975 and the station went off the air that April.

That's when he made the move to Detroit. "I was just about on every station on the Detroit dial except for PBS," said Sweed, whose raucous style often gave station managers' heart palpitations.

The Ghoul has always aired his movies late at night after the 11 o'clock news, but that changed with his new show. It won't, however, change his show much.

FRANK P (AINESVILLE) DID A BUNCH OF RESEARCH IN-TO WKBF, WUAB AND EVEN BILL BARRETT (MEDIA CRITIC) ARTICLES VIA MICROFILM. BELOW, A FRANK FIND! DOUG MURRAY WANTS TO KNOW IF THERES ANY NEW GHOUL NEWS? WELL DOUG, YOUR LETTER CAME

WITH A NOTE FROM OUR PAL PEANUTS WHO DISCOVERED RON (THE GHOUL) SWEED AT A SOUTHSIDE JOHNNY CONCERT AT NAUTICA (CLEVELAND) STAGE. GOT MO' GHOUL SIGHTINGS? WRITE DOUG (PRESIDENT OF FAIRBANK MODELS) @ 13483 STOWELL RD., DUNDEE, MI 48131 AND TELL'EM GXP SENTCHYA!

"I'll be as outrageous and wacky as ever bringing Ghoul power back to the Cleveland airwaves," he said. "I'm not Superhost or Big Chuck. I'm not a kiddie show host," said Sweed, who estimates most of his viewers and listeners fall in the 18-49 age bracket. Sweed gets the substance for his shows by reading local newspapers and magazines and keeping up on the latest trends. He also gets ideas from his wife of 10 years, Barbara, who he met at a polka at Valley Forge High School in Parma. "I like to keep one step up on the listeners," he said. "We're always changing. There are very few constants on the show."

One of the few constants is Froggy, who was around long before Mr. Bill, but who gets about the same treatment each show. "It gets tough to come up with new ways to obliterate the little fellow each week. Once in a great while he gets the best of me," Sweed said.

But for the most part Sweed tries to avoid using the same routines. "I won't hit Parma and the white socks much anymore," he said.

In his second show, he beats up on "Annie," one of the most popular movie characters in decades. "Annie" comes on stage with a song in her heart, singing "Tomorrow" from the stage and motion picture production. But that's too much for the Ghoul to take, so the kid gets baited.

His move back to Cleveland came after reading an article on WDMT program director Bobby Magic. "I read how he turned FM-108 around. He's not afraid to experiment and he doesn't go by set rules," said Sweed.

So Sweed gave Magic a call. "I didn't even know what their format was," he said. "I figured it was Top 40 or something like that." They met a couple of times and finally Magic decided to give it a try.

RON SWEED will "let the Ghoul times roll" beginning at noon today as host of the "Saturday Noon Movie" on Channel 61. It's been seven years since he was on Northeast Ohio television. (Channel 61 photo)

Guido Catalina

Hey you kids, ghee-yarrrr!!!

Man, the North Coast has been jumpin' for the last few months, lots to see and do and look at. Labor Day weekend was especially frantic, with The Rock & Roll Hall of Fame Museum grand opening, the Cleveland Air Show and of course those hard hittin' baseball players you may have heard about.

With all the hoopla, a great event slipped through the cracks of the media spotlight, namely the Visual Jams Rock and Poster Retrospective held at the Powerhouse September 1-4. Uncle Guido cut short his out-of-town festivities to get back to see this one and was damn glad I did!

Anyone into the rock poster art from the 1960's to present day was treated to seeing 100's of these original eye-poppin' gems in the flesh. If you've only seen them reprinted in books as I have, you can't believe how good they really look up-close! The frosting on this event was the artists themselves, Wes Wilson, Gary Grimshaw, Frank Kozik and Cleveland's own Derek Hess, to name a few, who were in attendance for a meet & greet.

I arrived plenty early on Labor Day morning and was rewarded with major snatch & grab freebies from the gimmie table, and hob-nobbed one-on-one with Kozik, Wilson, Emek and Coop. If you're a fan of the Big Daddy Roth/Robert Williams school of visual entertainment, then you've got to check out the works of Coop, a west coast dynamo!

Coop spied me coming around to his table and immediately flashed on my Ghouliardi shirt. It turns out his girlfriend is a major ghost-host fan! On top of that, he told me he had stayed up to watch the Big Chuck and Little John show at his hotel and raved about how great their old bits were! I knew we were deep in Ghouliardi terror-tory at this point, and bestowed upon him one of my last G+P promo buttons. We jaw-jacked about music, flea markets, monsters, cars and other related Ghouliardi topics for the better part of an hour until my little "Guido-ette" reminded me she was ready for dad to take her to lunch.

In my haste, I forgot to get an address from Coop and had to resort to a scatter-mail technique to poke him with some newsletters. Hopefully one of them will get to Coop and he'll write us back. (Ya hear me Coop?)

Meantime, you knif's track down some Coop posters fer yer cave while they're still within financial-reaching distance!

Next time around, Guido's Survival Guide For Your First Visit To The Rock & Roll Hall Of Fame Museum! Be there!

THE NORTH GHOST

Guido Catalina

Hey you kids, ghee-yarrrr!!!

Happy Año Nuevo-dayo! If you didn't get to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum in Cleveland last year I hope you made a resolution to get there in 1996! But don't wait too long...they already raised the admission price! When you go, be sure to take along your Ghoul*Pardi Survival Guide printed here.

Parking: They suggest to park by Burke Lake Front Airport, but Guido says to cruise around for a close-in side street spot, or at the bottom of W. 9th St. is a pay lot with fluctuating prices depending on what's happening downtown. Just watch out for the teeny No Parking signs placed 20 feet up the poles!

If you're hungry, make double-darn sure you eat before you get inside unless you carry tons of extra cash. Walk in the main doors and gawk around like a turista (it's breathtaking, gawk away!) then ride the escalator downstairs to buy your ticket if you don't have a membership card (which you should get 'cause its a great deal if you plan to go more than twice a year—get the Family Membership and take a member of the opposite sex and the neighbor kids if you don't have a family).

You'll have to leave your camera here unless it's small enough to hide in your pocket. Hang a left before you go in and check out a great picture of Janis Joplin outside the men's room!

Plan to spend about 60% of whatever time you've allotted for your visit on the ground level, as it's the only floor you can't re-visit once you've left. And there is a lot of great stuff to see! If there's a bottleneck at any point of the tour, make a detour to a less congested area. I've been there twice and still haven't soaked it all in yet. Look for the chunk of plane wreck with Otis Redding's name on it. It really got to me. Keep in mind the floors and exhibits get smaller as you travel upward!

Must-see items upstairs are the Sam Phillips recording studio and "sculpture" of functioning TVs (Video Killed the Radio Star) on level 2.

The Rock Hall is a no smoking establishment, but nicotine heads may find relief on level 3 outside the museum café on the terrace...use the ash can and resist the urge to pitch yer butts into the lake below! While up there, check out the prices on food and bevies and you'll know why I said to eat before you go.

The Hall of Fame itself on the top floor with the backlit etched signatures is anti-climatic, but you'll perk up as the escalator down drops you straight into the gift shop! Post cards for a buck each is the best deal for a souvenir, but if you resisted the temptation to eat on level 3, you should have just enough money left for a RNR Hall of Fame SNOWDOME!

NEW GHOUL — Ron Sneed, 22, Bowling Green University student, is host of Nightmare Movie Saturdays, 11:30, on Channel 51.

OLD GHOUL — Ernie Anderson, now in California doing TV commercials, was the original Ghoulardi on Channel 9. He left town in 1966.

"Hey Group, Cool It With the Boom Booms" . . .

says Ghoulardi, (alias Ernie Anderson), host of the WJW-TV Shock Theatre, and creator of Laura, Ghoulardi and Hardy seen daily on WJW-TV.

"Man, if you're not driving a sports car from Car-France, your not really with it and you deserve to stay sick and turn back," he concluded.

Ghoulardi is having a gas of a time with a sports car he purchased from Car-France. Why don't you?

"A Real Cool Ghoul" says GOULARDI (alias Ernie Anderson), host of the WJW-TV "Shock Theatre," about his AC/AC sports car recently purchased from Car-France.

"Man, this show really goes," he further stated. Car-France is currently conducting a quarter-million dollar sale of new and used sports cars, including Austin-Healey, MG-B, Sprite, Midgott, TR-4, Sportfire and Triumph Herald.

Goulardi bought one. Why don't you?

Hey group, Ghoulardi rides again

By Harriet Peters

Hey group, remember this movie is a real dog and now the Mouset!

It's as if Ernie Anderson, now in California doing TV commercials, was the original Ghoulardi on Channel 9. He left town in 1966.

Before making his debut at Channel 51 in March, Sneed called Anderson in California.

Ernie gave me his blessing but said he wouldn't do it if it was about the Ghoulardi character. He didn't think it at Euclid Beach Park for personal appearances would be accepted again."

Ghoulardi.

For three and a half years Sneed worked for Anderson as his production assistant and emcee. When Anderson left for California in 1966, Sneed worked for the Big O Show and Mountain Show on Channel 9.

Before making his debut at Channel 51 in March, Sneed called Anderson in California.

Ernie gave me his blessing but said he wouldn't do it if it was about the Ghoulardi character. He didn't think it would be accepted again."

Ghoulardi.

Channel 51 now gets the Ghoulardi show 100 fan letters a week. Yesterday he received 50 letters and several presents, including fifty socks and old rubber boots.

Sneed is a junior at Bowling Green State University and commutes to do his weekly show. He answers mail and prepares Friday and Times Monday night.

Incidentally, Sneed is a student, apparently he is still looking for the spirit of his dreams.

Please print a biography of Ernie (Ghoulardi) Anderson. Please print a picture of him as Ghoulardi. Also where CAN I get larger pictures of him as Ghoulardi and as himself? — U. B.

Ernie Anderson was born in Lawrence, Mass., the son of a telephone system installer. He worked as a disc jockey in Vermont, Rhode Island and New York before coming to Cleveland's WJW-TV as announcer and creator of Ghoulardi. The "turn blue" had hit its height in 1963. Anderson made his net work acting debut in 1965 and left Cleveland the year after to seek his fortune on the West Coast. Since then he has made a TV series, commercials, and a film and is a new father. Have you tried local poster shops for Ghoulardi pictures?
